BigPacker

The professional farm packer
– efficient, easy to maintain and gentle on the eggs –

BigPacker – professional egg collection every step of the way

By adding a farm packer to the product range, Big Dutchman has completed its portfolio for professional egg collection in cooperation with Moba, the world's leading manufacturer of egg grading and packing equipment. To be able to offer our customers everything from one single source, we now provide BigPacker, a high-quality farm packer with many great advantages. These include a high net efficiency as well as very smooth handling of the eggs. BigPacker is available in three sizes. We also offer an automatic tray stacker as an option.

Let our advisers and the Moba experts, who will be responsible for commissioning and service, inform you about all advantages of BigPacker.

Continuous egg flow: the eggs reach the farm packer on wide rollers without egg-to-egg contact, thus ensuring safe transport

The dropset gently places the eggs in the trays

A clever technology guarantees that the eggs are aligned in the same way before they enter the carousel

Horizontal carousel system for optimal egg transport and reliable printing

Preliminary cuts for installation of a continuous inkjet printer
